28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1)

Civil Action No. 04 CV 1512
Judge ROBERT B. KUGLER

v.
EQUITY FINANCIAL GROUP, LLC, TECH TRADERS, INC.,
TECH TRADERS, LTD., MAGNUM INVESTMENTS LTD, MAGNUM
CAPITAL INVESTMENTS, LTD., VINCENT J. FIRTH,
ROBERT W. SHANER, COY E. MURPHY, and J. VERANO

INSTRUCTIONS - READ CAREFULLY

1. There is no constitutional guarantee to representation in civil cases. However, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1), a district court may request an attorney to represent a person who has been granted permission to proceed in forma pauperis in the action and is unable to afford counsel.
2. If you have been granted permission to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, you are unable to afford counsel, and you feel that you need counsel to represent you in the action, then you may ask the judge assigned to your case to request a pro bono (free of charge) attorney to represent you by completing and filing the attached "Application for Pro Bono Counsel." If the defendant has been served with the summons and complaint in the case, you must mail to him or his lawyer (if he has one) a copy of your application and file with the Court a certification proving service of your application on your adversaries.
3. If your initial application for counsel is denied, you are free to make subsequent applications as your case nears trial.
4. If you file an Application for Pro Bono Counsel, the judge assigned to your case will determine whether to grant your application. Factors that the judge will consider include:
 - (a) the claim has some merit;
 - (b) the pro se party lacks the ability to present an effective case without an attorney;
 - (c) the legal issues are complex or, the ultimate legal issues are not complex, but the pro se party lacks the familiarity with the rules of evidence and discovery needed to translate understanding of the law into presentation of the proofs;
 - (d) factual investigation will be necessary and the party is not adequately able to pursue said investigation;
 - (e) the case is likely to turn on credibility determinations;

- (f) the case will require expert testimony;
- (g) the party is unable to attain and afford counsel on his/her own behalf.

See Parham v. Johnson, 126 F.3d 454 (3d Cir. 1997) ; Tabron v. Grace, 6 F.3d 147 (3d Cir. 1993).

5. If the judge grants your application, there is no guarantee that an attorney will be willing to accept your case. The Court cannot force or require an attorney to accept a civil case pro bono. The District of New Jersey has a panel of lawyers who may volunteer to provide pro bono representation where the judge has determined to request pro bono counsel for a party. The Clerk's Office attempts to find pro bono attorneys to take civil cases upon a judge's request; however, you will receive pro bono representation only if one of these attorneys volunteers to take your case. Despite the diligent efforts of the Clerk's Office, the process of finding pro bono attorneys may be lengthy and unsuccessful.
6. At any time during the process of trying to locate a pro bono attorney for you, you have the right to withdraw your Application for Pro Bono Counsel and continue to represent yourself.
7. If an attorney decides to accept your case, you will be notified by the Clerk's Office by mail.
8. Please note that you are fully responsible for prosecuting your case by yourself, unless and until the Clerk's Office notifies you by mail that a pro bono attorney will represent you in the action AND the attorney informs the Court in writing that he/she is representing you in the action. Even though you may have filed an Application for Pro Bono Counsel, the failure on your part to prosecute your case at any stage of the proceedings may result in dismissal of your case.
